Le fate Hanno, for cifre, faeries is, for the letters of the alphabet, I fior. Flowers. Translated by Jennifer Silberberg (JennyR529@aol.com) Sul fil d'un soffio etesio - zenith. Nanette - the daughter of The Windsor rich man Mr. Ford, in love with a young man Fenton. Her father wants to marry her to Dr. Kayus. But the case helps the young lovers: an aging knight, wine lover and owner of a beautiful belly Sir John Falstaff, in order to replenish his empty purse, decided to hit for the rich ladies - Alice, the wife of Mr. Ford, and her neighbor Meg Page. Ladies, not being fools, decide to teach this beer barrel. He is invited on a date at the Ford house, then throw with a laundry basket in the ditch. But giving it as a misunderstanding, they call him at midnight in the Windsor forest to the oak of black hunter Gern in the costume of this very hunter. At night the fun begins: conspirators dress up as fairies, elves, breams and other magical people and evil. Nanette in the image of the fairy queen sings her adorable aria-romance, touting the fairies in a dance. Everyone scares, bashes and make fun of the terrified Falstaff. The fun ends with the wedding, but the cunning ladies all set up so that married Nanette and Fenton. Now even Sir John is content to be fooled not only by him. zindin zidan © Tibor. Young Anna Moffo as the fairy queen: Also like the performances of Sumi Cho and Kathleen Battle. (Nunnett / Destiny Regina Delle) Sul fil d'un soffio etesio scorrete agili larve, fra i rami un baglior cesio d'alba lunare apparve. Danzate! e il passo blando misuri un blando suon, le magiche accoppiando carole alla canzon. In the thinnest breath of marshmallows agile shadows, through the branches passed the silvery radiance of the rising moon. Dance! And smooth act follow to the tact of gentle music, linking the magic dance with the chant. (Fairy) The forest sleeps and squanders incense and shadow; and par in the aer dense green refuge at the bottom of the sea. The forest slumbers and exudes incense and shade, in the thick air of the night it looks like a green cave in the depths of the sea. (Nunnetta / fairy queen) Erriam under the moon, choosing a flower, each consequence in the core brings his luck. With lilies and violets, secret names sprout words, the words of graduates of pure silver and or, karma and malies. Fairies have flowers in figures. Let's wander under the moon, taking away the flower after flower, in the center of each cup is hidden its treasure. Let us write in secret names with lilies and violets, let the words, words shining with pure silver and gold, curses and spells bloom from our magical touches. Flowers serve as fairy letters. (Fairy) (while they were collecting flowers) Moviam one by one below the moon albor, to the brown oak of the Black Hunter. Fairy (Going to collect flowers) Go after each other in the moonlight to the brown oak of the Black Hunter. (Nunnett / Fairy queen) Fairies have flowers on the figures. The letters to the fairies are flowers. (Fairy) to the brown oak of the Black Hunter. Let's go to the Brown Oak of the Black Hunter. Singer: Barbara Bonnie 63806 views Big Small Description Barbara Bonnie sings On Wire Ethisio Puff from Falstaff's Late Verdi Opera. Falstaff together with the Day of the Kingdom, i.e. the fake Stanislav - the only funny operas composed by Il Grande di Busserto, Giuseppe Verdi. It may seem, but the gap between the opera booth was fifty-three years (1840-1893) In one hand, Kingdom Day meant early Verdi was trying to build a career to success, and on the other hand Falstaff belongs to the closing of the most successful career in the opera world. Bravo Master!!! I especially think that Barbara Bonnie along with the great Maureen O'Flynn gives the most beautiful rendition of this well-known air. The Suisse Romande Orchestra, conducted by Jeffrey Tate in 1986 - Geneva Regards from Caracas. This famous aria from Falstaff Verdi encapsulates everything about spring: breezes, flowers, fairies, love and dancing in the moonlight. I'm also a big fan of The Voice of Lisette Oropes- this aria is worth listening to for her breathing control alone. Thanks for reading my blog and happy spring!
